Sephora Return Policy

If you are not completely satisfied with your Sephora purchases, simply return the merchandise in new or gently used condition with your receipt and with the original form of payment.

We will be glad to credit you in the same form of payment with which your purchase was made when you return your item within 60 days of purchase date.

Returns made between the USA and Canada will be refunded in the local currency of the store where the return is made.

If you do not have your receipt, we may be able to verify your transaction if you present your credit or debit card used, or by your Beauty Insider account. If you do not have your receipt or if we are not able to verify your transaction via your credit or debit card or your Beauty Insider account number, we will not be able to process your return.

For approved returns made 60 days after purchase, we offer store credit in the form of a Sephora merchandise credit. Sephora merchandise credit can only be used at Sephora stores and is not valid for use on Sephora.com. Sephora merchandise credit has no expiration date, cannot be redeemed for cash (unless required by law), reloaded, transferred to others, or sold and will not be replaced if lost or stolen.

Sephora stores will accept returns of Sephora.com purchases within 60 days of purchase date. The original Packing Slip and Return Form (receipt) must be presented at the time of the return. Sephora does not refund shipping & handling charges unless an error was made by Sephora.

All returns are subject to validation and approval by Sephora. Sephora monitors return activity for abuse and reserves the right to limit or refuse returns or exchanges at Sephora and Sephora inside JCPenney.
