Sorry, did not have much time today. I left the towel rack on the dining table and marked the location with a blue tape (the bathroom is all covered with paper and plastic after they reglazed the tub). It's not ideal, let me know if you come up with a better idea.
Thank you.

We went through the packages with the doorman and could not find it. Weird. In any case, amazon refunded me and I reordered, new ETA is now Tuesday.
