Hi Karyna,

My name is Elizabeth, and I'm your new point of contact at The RealReal.

As your Consignment Representative, I'm here to assist with your consignment from start to finish. I'm happy to answer any questions about your account, our commission offerings and the designers and items we accept. I can also provide you with price estimates and extra shipping labels whenever you're ready to consign again.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you need anything at all! You can contact me directly at [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

Looking forward to working together!
Elizabeth
