Marc, I am very disappointed , I have spent a great deal of time and energy , including but not limited to hiring lawyers, finding a surveyor , transmiiting offers , bank statements and organizing my bank. This transaction should have been easily accomplished ie , a purchase of a property but each time I ask for something I am met with more requests I have with finality ,determined, that I will no longer play this game , so please feel free to inform my so- called " competitor " that I have revoked, rescinded, and hereby void all offers previously submitted. I wish you luck.
