Thank you. please send but unlikely as I prefer land on which to walk. . The Rabat authorities were quite harsh. They said this was an important house that transfer would not go unnoticed and told us they would ignore the share transfer and hold us responsible for the tax due . They said only the title in the haze trust name would be recognized and suggested they can refuse permits ,further transfers , and any clearance for changes.due to unpaid transfer tax and if appropriate according to the price , capital gains. Your vendor should be told.
