Hi Lori,

I am so so sorry for not getting back to you sooner. I was under the impression that Brice had been in contact with you, but clearly not the case. I should have made 100% sure, that is my fault and I apologize. We have decided to promote someone from within the company, thus we currently don't have a need to hire anyone else from outside. It was a real pleasure meeting you and Alejandro both and I will be in touch if anything changes.

All the best,
Sarah

Hi Sarah,

We haven't heard from you and were just wondering if Mr. Epstein was still planning on a trip here.

We assumed we would hear from you either way.

Hope you are having a wonderful summer!

Thanks,
Lori & Alejandro
