Hi, [REDACTED] - thank you again for sending the new logo art, that's much better. I see that the order has pricing for a 1-color printed pad, so Sandy will have to provide you with pricing for a full-color pad as requested.

Please find attached proof for your review. Please keep in mind that colors may appear different from one computer monitor to another, this item will be produced in the colors you requested. Please follow the instructions on the attached proof approval form to advise if this meets with your approval, or let us know if you have any questions or change requests. We do not proceed with production for any order until we receive the signed approval form. Thank you very much for working with us.

Best regards,

Kris Neidlinger

HI Kris, I think the issue was that my email setting was set on "medium" quality when sending photos, not actual size. Very sorry for the confusion. Please let me know if this works? This file should be about 800kb
