Hey [REDACTED] I'm trying to schedule our photo shoot for Monday Aug 20th. The photographer might not be available that day and can possibly only do the 21st. I know you are flying out that day, being picked up at 1:45pm. If the photog can only do the 21st, would you be ok with getting shot first in the morning, then you can leave right after the shoot for the airport?
