JE would like you to do some snacky things for tea at 5pm. He said you can make them any time of the day and just leave them for Lyn to serve. you don't need to be here at 5pm.. for 2 people, but if you are already making, perhaps make a bit more. thanks

JE asked me to check with you about if he'll need me to come or not. I think he was thinking about the 5:00 tea thing. If i do need t come by just let me know thanks

Oh and Citi Car Was a mess last night... the giuy was late and had a car full of groceries in his car when he picked me up...Just an FYI. Didn't bother me all that much but seems like a worthy thing to complain about if we use them again.
