Hi Ladies! Here are the photos from the hair trials yesterday. Went really well. I would like it to look more "natural" but she insists that I need volume to last me the day...we shall see ☺ The second 'do is the side swept pony tail for the reception. Someone will have to aid in that, but Sacha is coming back for makeup touch ups so she can help too if you ladies are nervous about that!

Had the makeup trial on Friday- which was fun- I am not used to so much makeup on my face but JB gave a thumbs up so that made me feel better. And I also met with my girl at the reception place on Friday as well and we are finalizing the timeline of events, etc. No food tasting yet- can't wait for that!
