Breakdown of royal marriages blamed on media pressure — 'the camera is always watching'

Divorce is no bar to throne says Prince

The Prince of Wales has said that a divorce is no bar to the throne, but that the media pressure on royal marriages is a major factor in the breakdown of such unions.

The Prince, who is expected to marry the American heiress, Mrs. Diana Spencer, in July, said that the media's constant presence at royal events was a major factor in the breakdown of royal marriages.

He said that the media's presence was a major factor in the breakdown of royal marriages, and that the media's presence was a major factor in the breakdown of royal marriages.

Burst tyre leads royal jet pilot off the runway

A royal jet pilot was forced to abort a landing on a runway in the United States after a burst tyre caused the aircraft to veer off course.

The pilot, who was flying a private jet for the royal family, was forced to abort a landing on a runway in the United States after a burst tyre caused the aircraft to veer off course.
