JE said if [REDACTED] is willing to commute back and forth, then she can..what difference does it make to him. Pls see below the email I sent her and her response. Not sure the best way to proceed with this. I think we need to meet them and see some sort of resume. JE is the only one who has met them so far..I don't trust that!

Hi [REDACTED],

I apologize for the late response to your email. I've been working nights and sleeping mostly in day time. Yes, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. About the job working in NY; Yes I'm really interested working with you guys [REDACTED].

My main concern would be job security ([REDACTED] potentially new position working for Mr. Epstein). Please let me know so I can start making a formal resignation with my job. Thank you so much and I'll do my best effort to work with Mr. Epstein. I'm looking forward to work with you all. Thank you so much again.

Hi [REDACTED],

I've spoken a little bit to [REDACTED] and Mr. Epstein about the possibility of you working for us in NY. [REDACTED] said you would need to commute back and forth everyday [REDACTED] due to you havin [REDACTED]. Do you know how you would get back and forth? By bus, train? and how long the commute would be for you? If you are willing to do this, it doesn't bother us. I wanted to get your thoughts on this and maybe we could try and see if it would work for you to work with us?

So I have the correct information, you and your husband both work [REDACTED]? Would it just be you who would want to come work in NY? Please let me know your thoughts and current situation. Thanks so much,
