Hi Lyn,
What time is your sister leaving NY tomorrow? I need you guys to help pack up the kitchen items, towels and sheets and what ever else is in the closets of 4M because we are moving everything in 4M to 3M on Monday around 11am. Can [REDACTED] help you with that tomorrow? I would also like for her to clean one of the apts before she leaves so she can see what she would be doing over there as well. 11B needs to be cleaned. Pls let me know if she can help with this. Otherwise, if Jojo can pick up some boxes and tape from Container store tomorrow for 4M and you guys can help pack up the small stuff in 4M Monday morning... the movers will be there Monday around 11am for the big stuff
