hi [REDACTED],

sorry i couldnt get to your building again, but was imposible to cross the bridge. i drove today to queens, i thought it would be easier if i take queensboro bridge at 59th st in manhattan..but it tooks forever to get to queens boulevard from my place, which leads you to queensboro brigde, and after it took me 10 min for one block on queens boulevard, i gave up.. so i went back. besides, i didnt have enough gas and all the gas stations were out of gas..

wouldnt be better to wait untill monday? maybe the subway sistem will be better. but anyway, if in the meantime i can get to manhattan i'll let you know, eventually i can leave the samples with your doorman.

maybe we can even start your apt monday if the workers are done with any room

sorry again,

ion
