Hi Jeffrey,

I hope you are doing fine. I am writing to you in connection with a financial product promoted by a friend of mine, which I thought could be of interest. I attach a presentation of the project for your review. My friend is acting as the promoter of the project and aims at raising funds for the company. I am only giving him a hand as we go way back.

If you would like to know more about this or even meet with the principals, I would gladly arrange a meeting. If not, no worries whatsoever.

I will be in touch with you regarding project Pearl.

Best regards,

Julien
