[REDACTED], the mattress in 3M is very new and a nice mattress. We can just use that mattress. The bed frame is also very new from Room and Board. Wonder if it would be better than what we have in any of the other apts

I like both. I do agree the low makes the ceiling look higher. I got the high because I like to lean against the headboard for reading.

I m thinking the low one, the ceiling looks higher this way. What do you think? Which one you got?

Thank you

Great! Also consider whether you would like the high headboard or the low headboard

Hi [REDACTED]

THIS is the bed I ordered and [REDACTED] ordered the same for one of our guest apartments. It comes in a high headboard and a low headboard.

Low:

High Headboard:

The fabric that it is stocked in will ensure a faster delivery, otherwise you can have it made up in any of the room and board fabrics.
