That is great buddy! Big relief.

Just so you know, I've spoken with Clark and Don, have [REDACTED] information, and there will be a letter (likely first thing next week) being sent to issue an official cease and desist. Hopefully that will be enough to silence her without pursuing any further legal action.

Either way, yet another weight off your shoulders from the "crazy bitch" category. Good week all in all.

Ryan

Everyone at DG is excited about the upcoming season and our partnership. While we were hesitant to bring this information to JGR, we felt we needed to since it was brought to our attention by a customer.

While we don't have the specifics, we know a customer shared this information with our customer service department and it was turned over to us. We understand how facts can be skewed, and we appreciate you taking the time to explain the situation. Furthermore, we value maintaining an open and honest relationship with you both on and off the track. We enjoyed meeting [REDACTED] and look forward to our time with both of you in the future. Please know that Rick trusts you and you have his total support. Rick considers the issue closed; therefore, a phone call isn't necessary.

Have a great holiday and we'll see you in Daytona (it will be here before we know it)!

[REDACTED] just spoke to Ken. If you guys would indeed like to speak with him he asked if you would provide a number and he would reach out to you. He is currently on the road and couldn't be reached at the office. Feel free to send it over to me and I will pass it along. If your comfortable with everything then we will be more than happy to let it rest and hope to see you guys very soon!

All the best,

Hello,

I know their have been a few questions about [REDACTED] past and our relationship. As anyone that has spent time with [REDACTED] will attest she is a very sweet and very special person. Unfortunately her boss made a big mistake and he paid his debt to society for it. I have researched this as much as possible and have not found anyone or anything legitimate that suggest she had anything to do with supporting his actions. She was his assistant at the time and there for helped coordinate appointments from business meetings, to lunches, dinners and even personal massages but what happen during the meetings or massages had nothing to do with her nor was she made aware of it.

Below is Ken Starr's information including a bio. He helped with the case at the time and is prepared to answer any questions either of you may have. [REDACTED] had nothing to do with the criminal case against Jeffery and had no involvement in the personal mistakes he made. It was the civil suit where some girls were suing her boss for money that she was brought into it. They sued everyone they could to put pressure on him. Including the fabrication of stories in tabloid magazines. In this case Ken and her attorney ask [REDACTED] to take the 5th for her protection but manly for the rest of case. It frustrated her but it was what counsel asked of her.

This topic is obviously something [REDACTED] has tried to put behind her. She is more than happy to speak to anyone with questions regarding it but it's not something we bring up as there is no upside in it. Below is her information as well. Either of us are always available for any questions. Unfortunately I have had some problems with a female fan that has become a borderline stalker. She has tried to stir up problems online with every girl I have dated and recently threatened to send something to my sponsors regarding this situation. I'm assuming this came from her. If you are ok with it I would like to have the email or emails that were sent to you so we can try get a handle on the situation.

I look forward to a successful season together and can't wait for you all to spend some quality time with [REDACTED] and I. I have no doubt you will grow to adore her just as I have.

Most importantly have a very Merry Christmas!

All the best,

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]
