

I believe that we are now ready to start moving some resources on the other keyphrase [REDACTED] girlfriend]. Charles told me a new term has to be taken into account and both of us believe we should cover the two terms at the same time, ie [REDACTED] girlfriend] as well as [REDACTED] fiancée], without saying anything official at this stage.

Our writers will start from the initial statement you provided below. To answer your question below, a lot of content among blogs and social profiles related to these keywords needs to be created. Once the content is available then we will start pushing it up thanks to support pages, and backlinks while we continue creating more new content. No video is ranking for that term, so we can take advantage of that by creating a short video to get one spot in the top 10 results. We could include some images in this video. New content will be published in different places. Some of the URLs we will be posting on:

[REDACTED]

There will be also some more profiles such as doodid, visualcv, plaxo, hi, and similar ones.

The images you provided us with will greatly help us move that content on the front page. Thank you again! We received approximately 100 images.

Do you want us to publish the content and then have it approved, as we did for [REDACTED], or would you prefer that we send you each article and the URL/place we plan to use before putting anything online?

Finally, about the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. It will also help us pushing up the content available for [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. Our writers could write a long thread that you could approve and that we could then publish little by little. The risk is that this listing will stick on #1 if we are very active on this one, and we would have to moderate this forum on a daily basis. This is something we need to discuss.

Charles and I will touch base shortly to see how you would like to proceed.

Should you have any other questions, please feel free to contact us.

Best Regards,
Guillaume Pélanne

Subject: Statement how [REDACTED] and I met

Hi Guillaume,

Here is the statement about how [REDACTED] and I met. I also sent several photos of us in a few separate emails. Will you please let us know in what context you will use this statement as well as any photos before doing so?

Thank you so much and have a very happy new year!
