Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your recent inquiry concerning the merchandise you purchased on sales check number [REDACTED].

This email confirms that we set a delivery date for your merchandise on 1/18/2013.

Please expect a reminder call 3 days prior to your pick up date. Please expect a call and an email the afternoon before your actual delivery date, which will include your 2-hour delivery window. You do not have to call back and confirm the delivery window. If you need to change the delivery date for any reason, our automated phone system is available 24 hours a day and can be used by calling 1-[REDACTED]. Please have your sales check number available.

We would like to thank you for shopping with Bloomingdale's. If you have any additional questions or concerns, or if you have additional sales checks that need to be scheduled, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Bloomingdale's
