AT&T will not come pick it up – they have you take it to a UPS center and they package it up and ship it. I do remember this from when we packed up the house.
The closest UPS center to you is [REDACTED]. phone # [REDACTED]

You will need [REDACTED] AT&T account number:

Hi [REDACTED],
I left a box for AT&T to pick up with the concierge at our building if you could pls ask them to come pick it up. It's all the routers, etc from them. Also, Brain asked if you could let Atlantic Broadband know that Maykal Ramos, our technician was very very helpful and went above and beyond to help us get our internet up and running. Thanks!!
