The web management stuff is the one thing that is time sensitive. [REDACTED] is working on it now. Let's stay on that but otherwise relax and enjoy the holidays!

Cool thanks. What is sort of time sensitive as well as going to take you quite some time is the replies to the questionnaire from web Management. We can table it til after the first of the year and I can come to the city and you Guys can dictate it all.

I'll look at that email more I'm depth tomorrow morning. Just got to Atlanta.

Everything else personally is what it is. Can't change and only hope it gets better.

I agree! You have done a great job this year. Don't stress about this stuff right now. Ill look through all of this and get back to you. I read it once and didn't see anything I thought to be time sinusitis especially with all you have going on. Merry Christmas and we will be in touch! Let me know if there is anything I can do to help!

Hi All:

IS there anything else needed from anyone to wrap up 2012 and go into 2013??? I am trying to finish things by tomorrow as I am going to Atlanta and Orlando until January 1st. Denise and I have been doing many things here to get ready for the baby as well as help her sisters family out. They just had a baby a week ago and there is a potentially very serious issue with the baby so we have been helping there as much as possible, but I feel I have been as accessible as any time through all of this.. On top of that a good friend of mine that I was just with in GSO last week died in his sleep the other day. Hasn't been the best of the past ten days- so if I was "bitchy"- sorry.

On my end.
