Its very cool, but perhaps too similar to what we are getting already. I'm thinking a different sculpture or would be better in that space

Hey Ryan

I wanted to send this email with images and ideas for a "Sun Drawing" I am proposing for the window space upstairs. While meeting at [REDACTED] place we discussed the possibility of another spatial drawing for the upstairs window that would be ok in the direct sunlight.

The idea is a layered drawing with holes burned in the sheets and no surface treatment, ie charcoal or ink drawn on paper. This piece would consist of the layered sheets of paper with a design of burned holes which would cast circles of light and shadow on the interior walls of stairwell throughout the day as the sun moves across the sky. It could also be lit in an interesting way for night viewing. I have attached a sketch of what it could possibly look like in the window ( the design on the sketch is a generic idea and could be made into whatever shape or image is desired) as well as images of a piece I made a couple years ago that is similar to what I am proposing. Ok if you could please forward this info to [REDACTED] that would be great.

thanks

DAS,

Great to connect via email, and enjoyed meeting you in person at the gallery.

I'm around the condo today and tomorrow (or can be Friday as well) if you have time to install it. Let us know about the mirror, and we'll plan accordingly.

You can find my mobile below if it's easier to talk by phone than email.

That looks great! We will install it there. When would be a good day and time for you to come install? If you could coordinate with Ryan on this who is copied here. [REDACTED] still wants to entertain the idea of putting a mirror behind it on the wall, so if there is a way to mount this to have the screws flush with the wall so we can mount a mirror if wanted later.

Thank you!

Hey guys,

I've drawn the skull onto a picture of the wall where the mirror is and I think this is a better approach than installing it in the window niche. The skull is more approachable and can be better appreciated on the wall. I've also played around with having the mirror option in the back and it looks fine but not necessary. Installing it on the wall would be quick & easy and if you want to change it up, it would be a lot less hassle to remove it as opposed to installing it in the window. Please let me know your thoughts and ideas!

Thanks,
DAS

Hey [REDACTED],

Tomorrow at 5 Pm would be best. I am fully booked on Friday. Let me know

if that works, thanks!

DAS

Hi David! Tomorrow or Friday would be good for us to have you come look at the space. Do either of those days work? And what time is good for you?

Hey [REDACTED],

We're finally back and working in Senaspace again. When you get a chance,
please contact me so we can sit down and arrange delivery/installation

of the skull piece. Also, if I can come and take a look at the space,

I can get a better idea of where it would look best. Let me know what day is good for you!

DAS

Ryan told me he met you with another one of our friends.. it's a small world! We are currently out of town, but may be back midweek for a few days. We are still trying to sort out the best spot to display the work.

Is it OK to keep it in your gallery until we know where we want to put

it?

Hi [REDACTED]

So the opening party went well and I was able to meet your briefly at the gallery. I am going out of town myself on December 25th so wanted to see if you guys were in town this week...?

Re: Payment Receipt - PayPal.pdf

no problem on keeping it up for the grand opening. I will be in town

till Friday, so maybe we can meet Thursday some time to go over install options. The area we are thinking of is in a stairway in front of a window which gets direct sunlight and can get very hot during the summer. I'm not sure if that's the best spot? Not sure how the piece

will hold up again the sun and heat. What do you think?

Hi [REDACTED]

Thank you very much for your payment! Let's talk on Monday if you are

back

then and will figure out when me and my assistant can install your

piece.

I am very busy with the grand opening on Weds so I wanted to ask if

we

can do it afterwards. Also do you mind if we leave the drawing up in the window for the opening? If not please let me know and I will take it

down beforehand and put another piece up. Ok look forward to seeing it in your

home and thanks again. ;)
