Holy shit! No way! that's crazy..

We are in Paris now. Flew from Antalya Turkey yesterday to Istanbul; JE's friend dropped us off in Istanbul so we could catch an Air France flight to Paris; we literally made the flight by a minute; they were about to close the gate when we got there all sweaty from running through the airport. Now I feel like I'm getting sick.. sore throat : (

I still don't know when we're coming home as JE is considering going to Moscow next week. It's driving me crazy! Now I have to try and get quick Russian visas in Paris, but it's a bank holiday today so everything is closed. The fun never ends.;)

Do you know what you're doing for Thanksgiving yet? I will probably try to go to Palm Beach for that week as I've seen Story all of 4 days in the past 2 months and he's getting a bit bitter about it.

I will keep you posted as to when I'll be home. I would love to see you soon. I feel very lonely lately..

So these are the leather contacts I compiled thus far- I added a fake skins one as well- real ones are super $$$ from working on the accessories here at TOCCA. But I am not sure your target market so you may want to stay away from the fake stuff. They are all from Italy.

Euderma
Rosapell
Intesa Sanpaolo Spa.
GEG International
Egosmeare Supply Italy
Tessilstock srl (fake)

I have actually worked with about half of these but that is when we did handbags so I doubt the same contact is there- but you never know as they are mostly family run places. They all speak the English so you should be fine with communicating.

So this is all that I had done thus far- I can't wait to see what you come with!!!!

BTW MB sale was this morning- so strange not having Annelie there...Got my mom 1 pair but there was honestly nothing good. They had NOTHING from this season as I guess some huge containers were stolen or something so our sizes were literally bare bones. They were going to call me if they found them. Who knows.
