I have never actually heard of the Doughnut Plant, but will be sure to check it out once I've returned to NY! I looked up their website and it looks quite dangerous!
I was wondering if I may have an address for you, as Jeffrey would like me to send you a book..

Please transmit to his Highness, that I would be glad to host him or any of his people, in order to further discuss turning science fiction into science fact. The Middle East has a great history of science. I enjoyed meeting both you and Abdullah. In addition, please feel free to share my contact info with anyone of Abdullahs choosing.
