Hey baby.. [REDACTED] sitting here with JE at 71st, and he was asking when you would be able to come do your apt.. I told him you were going to come this week, but tickets were too expensive. He said he would pay for your ticket to come this weekend.. maybe even tonight or tomorrow?? He would prefer to have your apt available over the holidays while we are out of town in case there is anyone who needs it. [REDACTED] sorry he is being so pushy about it.. [REDACTED] trying to tell him it's not that easy and quick.. you have everything in there, and I know it's not the best time to have to be dealing with this.

Anyways, would you be able to come to NY? I can buy your ticket if so.. and of course I would LOVE to see you!!!

I hope you had a great night last night..

I will call you as soon as I can, but still sitting with JE
