Hi Kim,

I just want to confirm that we are going ahead with Jeffrey's master bathroom carpet. He keeps changing the configuration of the 3 guest rooms and wants to see all the furniture in the rooms before he decides on the sizing of the rugs, which might be a little bit before that happens.. they are still being painted, etc..

I just wanted to be sure his bathroom rug wasn't being delayed.

Also, is there any time frame, quote, etc for the dining room carpet for the NY house?

Best,
