Had the doorman ring up to 4M and 14G with no answer and Norman said he hasn't seen him today. So weird.

Oh no!

I'm on the road driving back from Ohio with Josh and we were heading to Jersey but we're going to head to the city now so I can check for you.

Do you want me to knock and if I don't hear anything go into 14G?

Hey db..

are you at 301 by chance, or will be later?

I have not heard from Story all day today. His phone was stolen 2 days ago and he still doesn't have a new one, and he's not responding to emails. He had a friend visiting from LA staying in his apt, but his friend said he waited for him in the apt till 12:30pm, but no sign of him. It's so strange. would you mind going to my apt and checking if he is there, and knocking on 4M door? I'm starting to get worried..
