so you just didn't email me all day? either this morning when you woke up or this afternoon when you came back for a nap? I was really getting worried. I asked the doorman to ring up to both apts, but no answer, and was going to have Dana go to both apts, but she wasn't there.

When are you getting a phone?

You might want to email Sten.. he said he's been emailing you all day as well.
