Hi Katie,

Please see attached the letter from my employer explaining why we would need a second passport. If you think this looks good, I will write a similar one for myself and have his lawyer write one as a third person verifying as well that we are in need of a second passport. Please let me know if this is acceptable.

Best,

I'm wondering if I get all of our materials to you by tomorrow morning, what is the soonest we could have everything back? I will send everything overnight to you today via FedEx and would need everything mailed back overnight to me in NY once it's finished. I just need to know what the quickest method would be as have a trip this Saturday which we will need our passport for and wondering if this is enough time?
