I left a box in Rich's office with paperwork on top of it next to the shredder. I needed the box and the paperwork. Someone threw away the paperwork and put the box downstairs. I know you guys are trying to help and keep things tidy which is appreciated, but please do not touch or throw away any box or paperwork that has my name on it opened or otherwise as I will most likely need it to send something back or repackage something for the island. Thank you!!!
