Hey Larry V..

I just wanted to sort out some travel stuff..

Do you know what airport we will be flying into for Napa on Friday? JE was just invited to a dinner on Sunday night in San Francisco which I think he wants to attend. He said he will want to have wheelsup at midnight Sunday night from San Fran to LSJ if it's possible to do nonstop..otherwise we will make a stop in PB.

My question is, depending on where we are flying into Napa, do we need to fly from Napa to San Fran, or if it's a close enough drive type thing..
