Hey sweets. Hope you are doing well. Feels like I haven't seen you in forever!
I'm wondering what your schedule looks like for this weekend? JE is going to be in town and is looking for someone to help answer phones as he is going to be having a bunch of meetings over the weekend. Sue will be in London and I will be in Maine. Wanted to check if you or Jackie might be able to help out? Lemme know toots. And hope to see you soon!
