Subject: A Message from the General Manager

Dear Ms. Shuliak

You may have already seen the news, but I wanted to inform you directly that following the findings of an investigation conducted by outside counsel that lasted more than three months, the Metropolitan Opera has terminated our relationship with James Levine as Music Director Emeritus and Artistic Director of the Met's young artist program.

Although this marks a sad chapter in the history of the Met, I would like to assure you that the company is committed to ensuring a safe, respectful workplace for all our artists and employees, while presenting performances of the highest artistic caliber.

Thank you for your continued support of the Met.

Sincerely,

Peter Gelb
General Manager
