Hi Karyna

That would be great, especially for the napkins etc - shall I order or would you prefer?
Update - Randy (person whom we were going to chat about 71st front door) could not make it today, he will be heading this way on Friday
Will keep you posted
Warmest regards

Thanks [REDACTED]!
In that case, do we need to order a similar Miele unit for the Ranch?

Hi Karyna

Ok, thanks for update on Miele Ironer
Reference the Flatwork Ironer, confirming they are unable to add a reverse option to the unit
All the best

Hi [REDACTED],

Arlene and Sonam tried using the small Miele ironer yesterday and they would like to keep it for duvet covers, shams and fitted sheets, since there is no reverse option on the large one. They would still use the large presser for flat sheets, placemats, etc.
Merwin said to me that you have contacted the company regarding the reverse option for the large presser, and that they said it would not be possible. I just wanted to confirm with you if that is the case, or if we should try to investigate more?

Thank you,

Karyna
