Dear Tom,

You are very kind! Thank you so much for your recommendations and advice. I will get the books right away. I watched Memoirs of a Geisha a few times as a movie, but have never read the book, so I look forward to it. It was a pleasure to see you today.

Karyna,

Good to see you and we will open doors for you. I don't know these schools so can't really comment there.

Our team will do their best. I have a few more thoughts:

1. You should read Shogun (Clavell) and Memories of a Geisha (Golden). I want you to have some foundation and reference point for your experience.
2. We should add a trip to Kyoto onto the end of your stay in Japan. Best if you find a Japanese friend who would go with you for a weekend at the end of your trip. Kyoto is Japan.

Best,
Tom

Thank you so much Tom!!

Yes, I made contact with Koga-san regarding the proposed classes, which all sound amazing, especially the Japanese manner school! I hope it will work out. He also introduced me to the rest of the team, so we will be in touch to figure out the rest of the itinerary and the dates.

Thank you very much, I greatly appreciate your help!

I hope this works out. Japan is a remarkable country in many ways. At the same time, because it is so homogeneous, it can be difficult to find access points. I sent Jeffrey a menu of options for you. If you haven't already made contact w our team, you need to do so quickly. You should also make some decisions on which of the courses you want to take. The Kapanese do not do things on the spur of the moment so please get on this. I am coming over to the house on Jan 10. I am happy to help.

Best
Tom
