Great, thank you [REDACTED] JE is still on the high protein, low fat, almost no carb diet. So shrimp and scallops are great for him.

Boysenberries: are they the same as blackberries? I don't think I saw boysenberries in our local stores.. As for Sultan, JE has not mentioned anything specific for him. All I know is that food is an important part for Sultan, so he would need a proper meal, I don't think he has any dietary restrictions, but I will check.

P.S. happy to hear the herbs are back on LSJ! Thank you very much for that!
