Update:
Steven can't fit the bookcase in the car so we are going to have to pass on that and he says the sofa is too big as well. I think we will need to pass on both. Too bad...
The file cabinet and the shredder he will pick up possibly this afternoon after Eva hears back from Mt Sinai if they can use it. (we should know within an hour or so)

Thanks so much!

That's ok. Please let me know when he is coming back, so that I can notify the staff.
Thank you!

Hi Allison,

I see that your people have collected a few furniture pieces from 9 E 71st, but not everything that was listed. So I am wondering if that was all you needed or if someone still coming back to get the rest?
Please let me know...
Thank you!
Karyna
