Hi Ian,

I wanted to touch base with you to see if you are still planning on coming to Jeffrey's island this Friday or Saturday. If you are, will you be coming with anyone, and where will you be flying from? I'm trying to sort out my own schedule with flying down to St. Thomas, and I thought perhaps if you were going and flying from NY, we could fly together.

Please let me know what you are thinking.

Best,
