Ana, let's set up a space somewhere in the housekeeping area on LSJ where we can bring and go through the luggage that we bring each time, so that we don't have to bring it up to the main terrace. Mr. Epstein doesn't like when we leave boxes and other kinds of things there by the dining table. Also, this way everything will be brought to one place when we arrive and won't get lost.

If you have a difficulty finding space, we can face time and look together.

Thank you!
