Hi Karyna,

*I really do not have a recipe, I was in New Zealand when the trip was on and I just gave [REDACTED] details of what to do with what was in stock. The main thing to do is toast all the ingredients, except the dried fruit and place in a sealed container while warm. Do not use Walnuts as they get bitter very quickly
I can ell you what was in the mix, but do not have any measurements, let me know*

Warmest regards
