That is great!
Thanks so much James!

Hi Karyna,

I had TimeWarner look up what modem was connected in your apartment and it was out of date. They're sending a new one that should arrive sometime tomorrow.

There's nothing you need to do. I'll install it Thursday morning when we set up the Apple TV. I just wanted to let you know it was coming so you're not surprised when a box shows up.

See you Thursday.
