Sorry, but in both quotes, you reference the material as 100% dull silk hand tufted, but now it's almost $5,000 more expensive? I'm confused.

Hello Sarah,

Do not worry about providing a deposit at this time. We will send a balance proforma when then rug arrives here in NY. As far as the price is concerned you are 100% correct. My apologies for referencing the wrong material for this rug. The correct price, still reflecting a 75% discount can be found in the attached estimate. Please excuse my oversight.

Let us know if you have any questions, thanks!

Do I need to fill out the amount of the remaining balance for the CC form? Or should we wait to pay the balance once the rug is finished and the 75% taken from our credit will serve as the deposit for now? The rug should be exactly the same material/ type of rug the others are that we ordered for the 3 guest rooms from you previously.

On another note.. I'm curious as to why the price for this rug is less expensive then the others we ordered when this one is larger in size? You quoted me $8,100 for a 12'x12' rug, and we payed $9,775 for a rug with the same design, but 10'x11.5' in size.

Hi Sarah,

Great we will go ahead and order this for you today! Please fill out the attached CC form. To confirm this entire rug is cut pile correct? We have the aqua pom here "c1" to match color to.

Thanks

Hi Brad. Rendering looks great. We can go ahead and proceed with the order for this rug. What do I need to sign to send back to you to get this going?
Also, the color in the rendering doesn't look right, but I'm sure that's a non issue. As long as it's the aqua color I chose from the tuft samples I sent back to you guys.
Thanks..
