Hi Eric,

Still waiting to see a sample in high gloss please.

Here is a better example of what we would like to achieve in terms of both, finish and color

Smoothness shouldn't be a problem.

Hello Eric,

I received your proposal, thank you. Please see the attached photo with the look the owner would like to achieve: as you can see it is very shiny and smooth, except the color would need to be lighter. Would that be possible to do?

Thank you,
