Hi! Any update on this? Do the girls want to buy? I can contact them each individually and ask for their needs. Or you can send to me, whatever is easier. Just need payment info, cell number, email address, shipping address, and billing address. Xoxo

Perfect! Thanks Karyna :)

The company has lots of different options, from brightening and wrinkle erasing, to acne control, to basics like moisturizer and sunscreen, etc. So we have something for everyone!

Hi Karyna!!

Will you give me names / emails for any of the girls that are interested in Rodan and Fields skincare products? They're the number one skin care product in the country right now and all the products were created by two famous dermatologists!

I will reach out to whoever is interested and ask them what specifically they are interested in. Or you can tell me if thats easier :)

I have just started working for Rodan and Fields skincare company (currently #1 skincare products company in the US) as a consultant...I am selling clinical, dermatologist-created skincare products. Would you forward this email to the girls if any of them are interested in considering new skincare products? I can help them figure out what they would want/need the most. All of the products are amazing - the company was created by the two dermatologists who founded Proactiv.
