Karyna,

I already sent Mr. Epstein all the things that was done in the house. If I sit to give everybody an update of what's going on nothing will get done.

I used my best judgement of what to prioritize.

We did the best we could. As you are aware, Mr. Epstein did not really go away that long. Your vision of 3 weeks of just house work did not happened because the cleaning of 71, 301 plus the house needs maintenance, your list, John's list and dealing with vendors. Like I said we are doing the best we can.

Hello Merwin,

In my last email on Feb. 12th I have asked you for the second time to please post me on the housework progress and send pictures. I haven't heard back from you since then. Now Mr. Epstein is asking me about the house, and I still have no answers. I know he will not be happy to hear that.

Before I make any judgements, I would like to first ask you why I haven't heard back from you? Perhaps there is a good reason that I am not aware of?

Second, I would like to know if you were you able to finish the discussed projects within these 3 weeks?

Thank you very much.

Karyna

Karyna,

Sorry for not responding but we actually just left the house now. His water heater broke again and I've been trying to fix it since this morning. As far as the house progress, we have accomplished a few things but not all of them yet. We are getting the house ready because as far as I know he is coming back on sunday.
