Dear Karyna Shuliak,

Thank you for your purchase of the Smartheart Pro 12 lead ECG. In order to use your Smartheart Pro, it will be necessary to establish an account. The user name and password will be later used when you'll sign into the smartheart application . Please click on the link listed below to set you your user name and password.

Once you receive your smartheart device and activate your account, please take the following steps:

1. Download the smartheart application from either the Apple or Android App Store.
2. Pair your smartheart device with your smartphone or tablet.
3. Activate the smartheart application and perform an initial ECG.

Directions for downloading the application and pairing the Smartheart Pro to a smartphone or tablet are available at smartheartpro.com.

For a detailed explanation on the setup and use of the device, we ask that you read the user manual.

Sincerely,

Bob Sass

General Manager
