Dear Karyna Shuliak,

Our records show you recently attempted to place an order with the Flex Belt and it did not process successfully. This is usually due to a credit card number being input incorrectly, a billing address that has not been updated or a bank holding the charge for security purposes. A quick call to your bank should resolve the issue.

We would love for you to experience the wonderful benefits of the Flex Belt products. When you are ready to submit your order again, please use the link below and save 25% on your purchase! All of our orders come with a 60 Day Money Back Guarantee and a 2 year warranty.
