ok great, thanks. We will await JE's thoughts...do you think Leo is capable of cleaning the guest apartments and 11J by himself? I would think so...just wonder what the back lash will be from here at 71st?

(from what I understand, he does not do laundry) maybe Leo can be in charge of taking the towels and linens to cleaners as well?

I had Jena contact her today and she is willing to clean for us... but she books up quick and it may be a bit of a scheduling mess (ie: we may need her and she can't come for 3 days or something). She is $70 cash for cleaning but will be more if we want her to do laundry.
