Hello Philippe,
I am sorry for the delayed response! I found your last few emails in my "SPAM" folder for some reason so am just now seeing them.
I have spoken to Jeffrey and he says you can come and take back the Sonos from the apt. If you'd like to coordinate with Valdson, the house manager, a time to go to the apt that works for both of you. His number is [REDACTED]

I wasn't able to get any further answers regarding the rest of the quote. I will try!
Thank you..
