OK.. I think that's a good idea..I can get a custom size sisal rug from this website and there's lots of choices. Does the one in this link look like the one from Molyneux(not that I need to get them same one).. and sorry, but what is the size I would need again?

Hi [REDACTED],

I have just spoken to the Floor Factory to confirm that we would be bringing your office rug to them this afternoon, it seems as of last week they have decided not to offer the service of binding - they can cut the rug down but that is it. They have sold the binding part of the business to "Goddy" whom I have just spoken to and he has work set up until late Jan and not interested in taking on anything until the New Year. I called the Floor Factory back whom we have used often and they do not know of anyone on St Thomas or St John who would be able to complete this work

This leaves us with sending it back on the plane and sorry to say you are stuck with it again.

The temp sisal rug we have for cabana 4 is still to big for your office

To be honest it probably is cheaper for you to just buy a new rug for your office, we still need area rugs in Sams Place, 5/6 Palms and our cottage sorry about this - the joys of living in the USVI!!!

Please advise
